§ 30.265

- (b) When required by paragraph (a) of this section, BIA must furnish a valuation report in the probate file when it is submitted to OHA. Interested parties may examine and copy, at their expense, the valuation report at the agency.
- (c) The valuation must be made on the basis of the fair market value of the property, as of the date of decedent's death
- (d) If there is a surviving spouse whose interests may be subject to the tribal purchase option, the valuation must include the value of a life estate based on the life of the surviving spouse in one-half of such interests.

§ 30.265 What determinations will a judge make with respect to a tribal purchase option?

- (a) If a tribe files a written notice of purchase under §30.261(a), a judge will determine:
- (1) The entitlement of a tribe to purchase a decedent's interests in trust or restricted land under the applicable statute:
- (2) The entitlement of a surviving spouse to reserve a life estate in one-half of the surviving spouse's interests that have been purchased by a tribe; and
- (3) The fair market value of such interests, as determined by an appraisal or other valuation method developed by the Secretary under 25 U.S.C. 2214, including the value of any life estate reserved by a surviving spouse.
- (b) In making a determination under paragraph (a)(1) of this section, the following issues will be determined by the official tribal roll, which is binding on the judge:
- (1) Enrollment or refusal of the tribe to enroll a specific individual; and
- (2) Specification of blood quantum, where pertinent.
- (c) For good cause shown, the judge may stay the probate proceeding to permit an interested party who is adversely affected to pursue an enrollment application, grievance, or appeal through the established procedures applicable to the tribe.

§ 30.266 When is a final decision issued?

This section applies when a decedent is shown to have owned land interests in any one or more of the reservations designated in § 30.260.

- (a) The probate proceeding relative to the determination of heirs, approval or disapproval of a will, and the claims of creditors must first be concluded as final for the Department under this part. This decision is referred to in this section as the "probate decision."
- (b) At the formal probate hearing, a finding must be made on the record showing those interests in land, if any, that are subject to the tribal purchase option.
- (1) The finding must be included in the probate decision and must state:
- (i) The apparent rights of the tribe as against affected heirs or devisees; and
- (ii) The right of a surviving spouse whose interests are subject to the tribal purchase option to reserve a life estate in one-half of the interests.
- (2) If the finding is that there are no interests subject to the tribal purchase option, the decision must so state.
- (3) A copy of the probate decision, together with a copy of the valuation report, must be distributed to all interested parties under §30.236.

§ 30.267 What if I disagree with the probate decision regarding tribal purchase option?

If you are an interested party who is adversely affected by the probate decision, you may, within 30 days after the date on which the probate decision was mailed, file with the judge a written petition for rehearing under this part.

§ 30.268 May I demand a hearing regarding the tribal purchase option decision?

Yes. You may file with the judge a written demand for hearing if you are an interested party who is adversely affected by the exercise of the tribal purchase option or by the valuation of the interests in the valuation report.

- (a) The demand for hearing must be filed by whichever of the following deadlines is applicable:
- (1) Within 30 days after the date of the probate decision;
